Martin, Sam. Jack-son, Israel Hicks, Elbert Harris, Nelson To the People of Shelby, Fayette, and Harde Gleason, living near town, saw several negroes who went to her house and inquired for her husband. I think there is no danger to-night or to-morrow night; after that I fear there will be a demonstration by the negroes. I notice that they stand around groups of white men, trying to ascertain what they are talking about. This has been going on didate for congress, to represent your district in the congress of the United States. My name will therefore be sub-mitted to, and I will be governed by, the convention which meets in Bolivar the eighth of September.
